Active Communities Conference

The Active Communities Conference aims to raise awareness of Active Community Environments (ACE), and to inspire all sectors that influence the built environment to strive toward making it easier for people to be physically active wherever they live, work and learn in Maine.

This, the seventh annual running of the conference, continues to build on the growing awareness of ACE concepts and initiatives across the state.

Join us in beautiful downtown Bangor on Thursday, September 25th at the Unitarian Universalist Church for the good word on all things ACE.

Mike Lydon - Keynote

Mike Lydon is a Principal of The Street Plans Collaborative, an award winning planning, design, and research-advocacy firm based in Miami and New York City, and an internationally recognized planner, writer, and advocate for livable cities. He hails from the great State of Maine.

Using his intimate knowledge of Maine, Mike will inspire us all to find and use creative ways to get Mainer's moving now!

Mike collaborated with Andres Duany and Jeff Speck in writing The Smart Growth Manual, published by McGraw-Hill in 2009. Mike is also the creator and primary author of The Open Streets Project and Tactical Urbanism: Short-Term Action, Long-Term Change Vol.1 and Vol.2. Mike also co-created and edited the recently published Mercado: Lessons from 20 Markets across South America authored by Julie Flynn. He is currently writing a full-length book about Tactical Urbanism with co-Principal Tony Garcia, to be published by Island Press in the spring of 2015.

Mike received a B.A. in American Cultural Studies from Bates College and a Masters in Urban Planning from the University of Michigan. Mike is a CNU-Accredited Professional and he encourages you to trade four wheels for two.
